

The Best Practices for Lead Response Management

Based on the research of Jaymes Oldroyd, PHD, visiting research fellow at M.I.T. & David Elkington, C.E.O. of InsideSales.com

3
Years of Data

Across many companies that respond to web-generated leads

15,000
Unique Leads

100,000
Call Attempts

The Focus

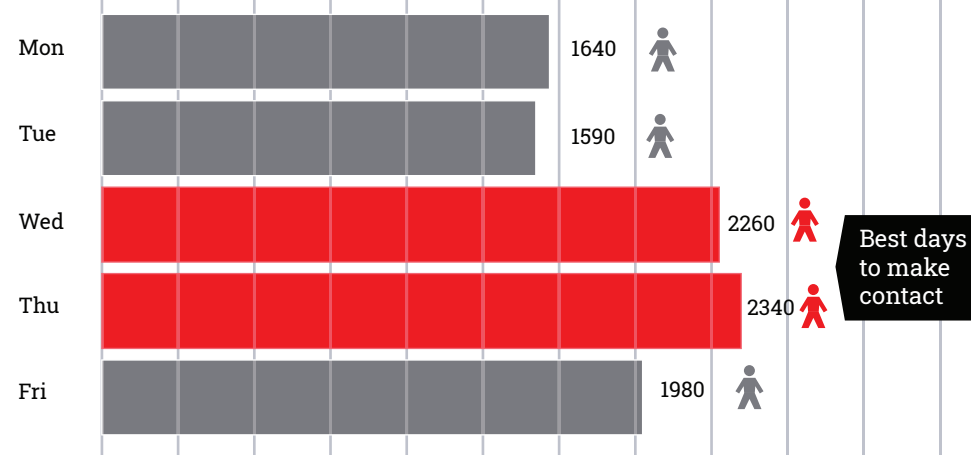

For the best results, how should companies respond to their leads?

Mission

(1) Maximize results, (2) minimize effort. Many of the results in this study are based on first call attempts, indicating how to get the job done right the first time.

1 Best days to make contact

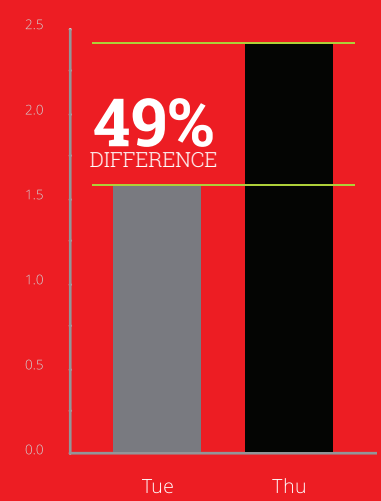

Contact made from first dials

The best days to qualify* leads are Wednesdays and Thursdays

* Qualification - the stage in the lead nurturing process where the lead is willing to enter the sales process

Tuesday VS Thursday

2 Best Times to make contact

Contact made from first dials

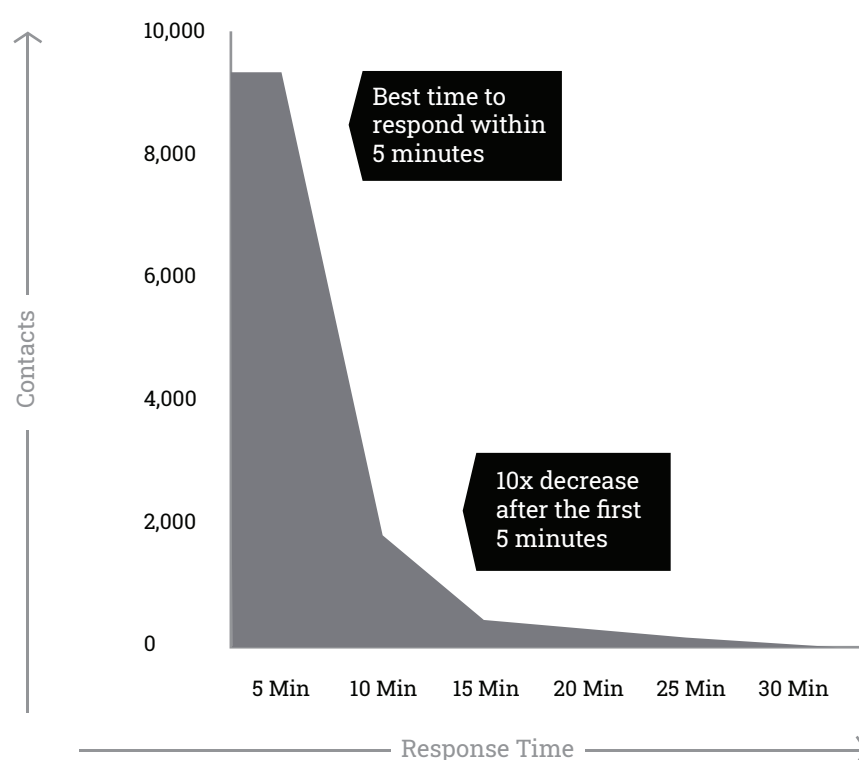

The best days to qualify leads is between 4:00 pm and 5:00 pm

QUALIFYING RATES
Early Afternoon VS Late Afternoon

3 Response Time

Contact made from first dials

Contact and qualification rates drop dramatically in just minutes and continue to decrease over the next few hours.

5 minutes VS 10 Minutes

Response Time

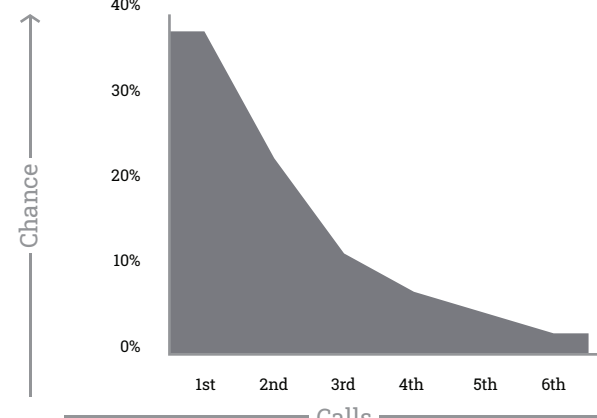

The moment an interested lead completes a web form until a sales representative contacts them.

4 Persistence

Chance of Making Contact

Average Call Attempts by Reps

Over 30% of leads are never contacted at all.

By just making a few more call attempts, sales reps can experience up to a 70% increase in contact rates.
